

2020 Texas Council on Family Relations STUDENT POSTER COMPETITION

Thursday, March 5th & Friday March 6th
Holiday Inn Southwest
Houston, Texas

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

The Texas Council on Family Relations invites entries for the annual TxCFR Student Poster Competition. The competition is open to undergraduate and graduate students at accredited colleges or universities who are enrolled during the Fall 2019 and/or Spring 2020 semester. Poster presentations must be student-driven and feature a student as either the first author or sole author. Undergraduate and graduate poster presentations will be judged separately. Also, completed research projects will be judged separately from content projects (research proposals, literature reviews, position papers, and white papers). Students must register for and be present at the poster session and awards presentation in order to be eligible for an award. Prizes will be awarded. Specific times for these events will be released in January 2020, but they will be held during the TxCFR Annual Conference on March 5th - 6th in Houston, Texas.

- Submit proposal by December 15th, 2020
- Entrants will be notified of acceptance on or before January 6th, 2020
- Entrants must submit a Final Project Overview (detailed at tx.ncfr.org) 2 weeks prior to the conference

This is a unique opportunity for students from across the state of Texas to share their work related to families and to network with other students and professionals. We hope you will consider submitting! If you have questions, please contact TexasCFR@gmail.com.

Full eligibility guidelines and submission form will be available at tx.ncfr.org. Submission Deadline: December 15th.*
